Shermco Industries' Kevin Alewine joins board of directors for North Texas Chapter of SMRP

DALLAS – Kevin Alewine has joined the board of directors for the North Texas Chapter of the Society for Maintenance and Reliability Professionals. He will be serving as director of membership services.

“This is an excellent trade organization for professionals in the light, medium, and heavy industrial base. Preserving and ensuring the reliability of capital equipment deters costly down time and expensive equipment repairs and replacement,” said Alewine, director of Renewable Energy Services for Shermco.

SMRP is a nonprofit professional society formed by practitioners with a mission to serve leaders and advance reliability and prudent physical asset management.

ABOUT SHERMCO

Shermco Industries is a provider of safe, reliable testing, repair, professional training, maintenance and analysis of rotating apparatus and electrical power distribution systems and related equipment for the light, medium, and heavy industrial base nationwide. Founded in 1974 in Dallas, the company is comprised of two strategic business units; the Machine Services Division and the Engineering Services Division. With a corporate location in Irving, Texas, a sales office in Brussels and service centers in Austin, Cedar Rapids, Des Moines, Houston, Sweetwater, and Tulsa, Shermco Industries has over 430 full-time employees. The company is a member in good standing with the Electrical Apparatus Service Association, American Wind Energy Association, Professional Electrical Apparatus Recyclers League, and the InterNational Electrical Testing Association.
