Shermco Hires Rob Stewart as Utility Business Development Manager for North America

DALLAS – Shermco Industries today announced that Rob Stewart was hired as utility business development manager.

Stewart will be responsible for helping Shermco grow its client base in the North American electrical utilities market in both the US and Canada. With more than 25 years of experience in the electrical industry, Stewart brings a great depth of knowledge to his new position at Shermco Industries. He has many years of sales and sales management experience focusing on key multinational corporations in the transmission, distribution and generation industries.

“We are excited to bring Rob aboard. He has the perfect mix of experience to serve and grow our utility customers in North America,” said Mike Hancock, corporate sales manager for Shermco Industries.
