Shermco Industries Welcomes Mike Thawley to Its Team As National Account Manager for Shermco's Machine Services Division

Irving, TX: Shermco Industries is proud to announce and welcome Mike Thawley to its sales team. Thawley comes to Shermco Industries with over 35 years of experience in the rotating equipment industry on both the sales and operations side. He becomes National Account Manager for Shermco's Machine Services Division (MSD). His mission is to grow MSD and Shermco's business overall in the greater Houston area and across the US by supporting Shermco's existing sales team while calling directly on select customers.

He joins the Shermco team from Brush Aftermarket USA located in Turtle Creek, PA, Brush Aftermarket is a provider of engineering driven solutions for generation equipment in electric utility and industrial plants. Thawley served as Sales Director for Brush Aftermarket Americas. Brush is a global manufacturer of turbo-generators specializing in installation, commissioning, major repairs, replacement components, and upgrades for generators. His responsibilities included; management of all sales activities in The Americas along with Strategic Account Management.

"I am honored and proud to join the Shermco family. The opportunity to grow with such a successful organization and be a part of its team-oriented culture is exciting," said Thawley.

His previous experience includes Westinghouse and Westinghouse Subsidiaries. He began working with Westinghouse in 1978 as a motor mechanic. During his 25 years with Westinghouse, he successfully achieved every position within their rotating equipment aftermarket service organization, with the exception of engineering. From mechanic and customer service, to various levels of regional and national sales assignments, including regional sales management. His experience also includes time with Reliance/Rockwell (Now IPS) as Plant Manager, Regional Sales Manager and Key Account Manager.

Steve Camber, SVP Shermco Industries Sales and Marketing states, "We are thrilled that Mike has joined our growing team of sales professionals. His commitment to customer service and vast knowledge of the rotating machine industry will help achieve the goals we have set to expand our Machine Services Division. His depth of experience in the market helps Shermco expand our footprint in this important part of our business."
